Death of Mr. McLean.

The many friends and acquaintances of Mr. Donald McLean, who had during the past few days been anxious concerning his condition, were startled early last night when they learned that his case was hopeless and that he was, in fact, dying. He had gone to the Alexandria Hospital about ten days ago critically ill, suffering, it was believed, from appendicitis, a trouble from which he had recovered over a year ago. The disease returned while Mr. McLean was at Marshall, Fauquier county, to which place he had been transferred from Kernstown, Frederick county. While he had received the best medical treatment, his condition, serious from the first, showed no real improvement, although there were some fluctuations. Yesterday morning he seemed to be in a state to encourage his friends, but as the day waned a noticeable change set in. It then became evident that his death was but a matter of a few hours. He lingered until 10:05 o'clock when the end came.

The deceased was the youngest son of the late Anthony McLean, and was a well-known and popular citizen. He was 56 years old. In early life he engaged in business in this city with Mr. George Uhler, and the firm of McLean & Uhler was for years well-known hereabouts. Later he purchased a farm in lower Fairfax, on which he lived for some time, but subsequently he returned to Alexandria. During President Cleveland's second administration he was appointed inspector and gauger in the United States Internal Revenue Service and during the greater part of that time Mr. McLean was located at the Mahoneyville distillery, near this city, but from time to time was sent to Kernstown. Several months ago he was ordered to Kernstown, and later was transferred to Marshall.

The deceased was a member of St. Paul's Church, Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons, Alexandria Lodge of Elks, and the Royal Arcanum.

This is the eighth visit of the silent reaper into the family of the deceased in comparatively recent years. Malcolm McLean, his brother, was stricken with apoplexy in the street, and died at his home a few hours later. Anthony McLean, the father of the family, followed, and before time had blunted the edge of these afflictions three of the children of the subject of this notice died within a short time. His wife was the next victim and then the latter's sister. With the death of Mr. McLean but one representative of his immediate family is left—Douglas, his little son, twelve years old, now bereft of father, mother, brothers and sisters.

Mr. McLean was of a genial and generous disposition and made many friends at home and wherever he went. To those friends he was loyal to a fault and by them he will be genuinely missed. In his early manhood he became a Mason and had occupied important positions in the Blue Lodge, Chapter and Commandery. In conformity with a wish which he had frequently expressed, his remains were this evening taken to Alexandria-Washington Lodge rooms where they will rest till tomorrow evening, when they will be taken to St. Paul's Church, the church to which all of his people had long been connected, when the funeral services will be held. The interment will be in the family lot in St. Paul's Cemetery.

Sad Death.

Swallowing unsuspectingly a teaspoonful of deadly lyso, which she mistook for paregoric, Mrs. Carmen D. Sullivan died in horrible agony on Sunday, August 27, at her home in Oakland, Cal. The tragic occurrence took place shortly after one o'clock, while the family were at dinner. Mrs. Sullivan arose from the table and going to a medicine chest in an adjoining room, took from it a small bottle which she thought contained paregoric. She poured out a teaspoonful saying she was not feeling well. No one paid much attention to the act, until a shriek of agony warned them that something terrible had happened. Mr. Sullivan rushed from the room and caught his wife just as she fell, writhing in agony. Every aid possible was rendered, but Mrs. Sullivan was dead in 15 minutes. Both the bottles, the one containing lyso and the one containing paregoric, were side by side on the shelf. They were of the same size, and their contents the same color. The bottle containing the poison was labeled as such, but Mrs. Sullivan picked up the wrong one without noticing her mistake. Mrs. Sullivan was the only daughter of Judge W. L. Bradford, a well-known lawyer of San Francisco, and was, herself, a notary public of the same city. She was married 18 months ago to Mr. Charles Wither Sullivan, formerly of this city.

River Notes.

The steamer Pocahontas, which has been used as a Potomac excursion boat during the summer, left this morning for Norfolk.

The tugboat George W. Price, Captain Walter Posey, towed the three-masted schooner Charles Sprague to Washington yesterday. The Price also brought up a house boat which had been at Colonial Beach during the summer.

The barge Lilly of the West, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., has left for Fort Hunt.

The tugboat George W. Price, and the yachts India and Augusta are to be hauled out on the railway for repairs.

Drowned.

An unidentified man about 30 years old, supposed to be Edward D. Ball, who lived near Thirteenth and M streets, northwest Washington, accidentally fell into the Potomac river, near the foot of Jefferson street, late yesterday afternoon and was drowned. The man was fishing from the wharf of the Columbia Sand Company when the accident occurred, and no person was near enough to lend him aid. The body was recovered.

Mr. John Travers fell at his home on south Henry street last night and broke one of his fingers.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William Marshall, colored, arrested by Officer Patterson for drunken and indecent conduct on the street, was fined $5.

William Dudley, arrested by Lieutenant Smith and Officer Roberts on suspicion of taking $5 from the person of George Elmore, was dismissed.

Edward Travers, arrested by Officer Patterson charged with using abusive language toward Agnes Hansborough, was fined $2.

Lula McCoy, colored, arrested by Officer Bell charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was fined $5. Peter McCoy, arrested by the same officer on similar charges, was dismissed.

George Smith, colored, arrested by Officer Smith charged with being drunk in the street, was dismissed.

A white man, arrested by Officer Beach charged with assaulting his wife, was fined $20.

George Lomax, colored, arrested by Officers Beach and Patterson charged with disorderly conduct, was dismissed.

Lucien Bell and Minor Coleman, both colored, arrested by Officers Patterson and Mayhugh charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, were fined $5.

Sarah Alexander and Annie Freeman, both colored, arrested by Officers Knight and Arrington charged with disorderly conduct, were dismissed.

William Pye, arrested by Officer Bell charged with disorderly conduct and fighting, was dismissed.

William Evans, arrested by Officer Beach charged with fighting, was fined $5.

Evans Brooks and William Lightfoot, arrested by Officer Smith charged with maintaining nuisances on their premises, were dismissed.

A Pleasant Birthday.

The Havana "Elle Luca" says: "A quiet little dinner party was held last night in the spacious and airy dining room of Dona Pilar at the Miramar Hotel. The occasion was the birthday party of the manager of the R. G. Dunn Company in this city, Mr. J. Ellis Norrie. An excellent and elaborate menu was prepared with the choicest of wines served with every course, and, with the extra thoughtfulness of the host, special Chinese delicacies of the Flowery Kingdom for the distinguished foreigners.

The table was artistically decorated with choice cut American Beauty roses and other flowers, and the service, which was especially looked after by Dona Pilar herself, could not have been surpassed.

The wife of the Chinese Minister was given in an elaborately embroidered white Chinese creation. Mrs. Harry Lee Marshall, another of the guests, was also beautifully gowned.

During the evening the music of the Municipal Band floated in through the windows and served as a delightful accompaniment to the delicious repast.

Mr. Norris's guests were the Chinese Minister and his wife, Hon. Liao Ngantow. Mr. Chung, first Secretary of the Chinese Legation; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Marshall and Mr. R. D. Washburn.

Mr. Norris is a native of this city and has many friends here who will be glad to learn how well he is succeeding in Havana.

Confederate Veterans.

The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, was held at their hall last night, Commander John M. Johnson presiding. A communication from the Garland-Rodes Camp, of Lynchburg, in reference to the genuineness of two pay rolls (which were enclosed) signed by two members of the Seventeenth Virginia infantry, was read and the rolls found to be genuine.

The election of delegates to the Grand Camps, which will hold its meeting at Petersburg, Va., during the last week in October, will take place at the next meeting. But little business of importance was transacted.

Fire.

At 11:45 o'clock last night a frame house occupied by colored people in the square bounded by Wolfe, Wilkes, Alfred and Patrick streets was found to be burning. The whistles of several locomotives at the Southern Railway depot sounded an alarm and a few minutes later the department was on the ground and at work. The fire was under the roof of the house and it was soon extinguished. The damage was slight. Considerable excitement was caused in the neighborhood by the alarm whistles. All the houses in the block are of wood, and had the flames gained headway serious results would have followed.

Struck by a Locomotive.

Mr. Peter W. Simmon, flagman at the intersection of King and Henry streets, stepped in front of a moving engine at 4:40 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He was struck by the pilot of the locomotive and thrown to one side. People who witnessed the accident ran to him, supposing that he had been killed, or seriously hurt, but they soon saw that he had escaped with comparatively slight injury. He was removed to the Alexandria Hospital, where he was attended by Dr. William M. Smith.

Fined Twenty Dollars.

Some excitement was caused on south Fayette street last night by the blowing of police whistles and the running to and fro of people. It was soon learned that a man had assaulted his wife, and later Officer Beach appeared and took the accused in custody. He was brought before the Police Court this morning when Justice Caton fined him $20.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy Aids Nature.

Medicine that aids nature is always most effective. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy acts on this plan. It allays the cough, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions, and aids nature in restoring the system to its healthy condition. It is famous for its cures over a large part of the civilized world. Thousands have testified to its superior excellence. It counteracts any tendency of a cold to result in pneumonia. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Strikes Hidden Rocks.

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of Consumption, Pneumonia, etc., you are lost, if you don't get help from Dr. J. W. McKinnon's New Discovery for Consumption. J. W. McKinnon, of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with Pneumonia, and the care of two doctors, but was getting under the care of Dr. McKinnon's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me. I am now well and strong. I have cured many others of Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Guaranteed at B. B. Smith's and Sons' drug store, price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Personal.

Mrs. E. A. Proctor, accompanied by Miss Ada Ticer, has gone to Philadelphia and New York to spend a few weeks.

Dr. L. M. Blackford, of the Episcopal High School, and his son, Mr. John M. Blackford, have returned from Europe, where they spent the summer.

It is stated at the Georgetown Hospital, that the condition of Dr. Edwin C. Schneider and his brother, Mr. Frederick H. Schneider, both of whom are ill at that institution, is satisfactory.

Mr. J. D. Normoyle left today for Atlantic City to spend a short vacation.

Col. F. L. Smith and his sister, Miss Margaret V. Smith, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent the past month.

Mr. J. N. Gibbs, who spent the past few weeks at Bluemont, has returned to his home in Fairfax.

Mr. Sherman B. Fowler has returned from his vacation, which he spent in New York and New Jersey.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

The time of the court was occupied today in hearing the case of Miss Annie Murtough, of West End, vs. the W. & A. & Mt. V. Ry., a suit for $5,000 damages for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained in the collision on that road just west of this city, on the evening of March last.

Hospital Notes.

Mrs. Thomas, who had been seriously ill at the Alexandria Hospital, has so far recovered as to be able to leave that institution.

Miss Mabel Lyon and Mrs. Johns, who have both been seriously ill at the hospital, are rapidly recovering.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The excursion season is about over. St. Mary's Academy and St. Mary's Parochial School resumed their sessions today.

The sewer at the southwest corner of Prince and Union streets is again choked and flooding that section.

Mr. Remo has sold to a gentleman living in the north the Fitzhugh farm, in Fairfax county, near this city.

Robert McKnight, colored, who had for a long time been employed at the Episcopal Theological Seminary, died last night.

The weather early last night was sultry, but a northwest wind set in later which materially lowered the temperature. The weather today has been pleasant.

Oscar Richardson, colored, of Alexandria, was treated at the Emergency Hospital in Washington Sunday for a stab in the side, which he said he received at Brick Haven.

The Lady Macabees will hold a meeting tonight at their hall on north Columbus street, at which time business of interest to all the members will be brought up for consideration.

A man named Davis while attending a picnic yesterday at a station on the Southern Railway a short distance south of this city, alleges that he was robbed of $40 by a woman whom he had arrested.

Beginning with next Sunday, high mass will be again celebrated in St. Mary's Church when the male choir, recently organized, will sing for the first time. The choir will be under the direction of Prof. Wells, of Washington.

Charles Harris, the aged negro, who was shot in the back early Sunday morning by an unknown negro while they were riding together in the former's wagon in Fairfax county, is still alive, but the physicians at the Emergency Hospital in Washington, where he was taken, can hold out no hopes that he will recover. The Washington police have been looking for the man who did the shooting.

Henry Beverly, colored, 22 years old, of Jackson City, Alexandria county, is at the Emergency Hospital in Washington, the result of a peculiar accident. While sitting on the cabin of a houseboat on the Potomac river yesterday morning a shotgun, which was being cleaned by Richard Smith, who was in the cabin, was accidentally discharged, the shot going through the thin roof of the cabin and entering the lower part of Beverly's body. Physicians at the hospital say that the wounds caused by the shot and the splinters from the roof are of a serious nature and that Beverly may not recover.

Dining room open every Sunday during oyster season. C. H. Zimmerman, Market Space.

A Great Convenience.

As advertised in another column, Mr. W. P. Taylor, the pharmacist, has for the benefit of his patrons arranged to call for and deliver physician's prescriptions any hour of the day or night. Has both phones and night bell.
